

Career Accomplishments of Daniel A Jones*

May 16, 2020

Founded and sold a business, NASS, for profit (1980) WY

Investigated creating an operating system for microcomputers (1980) WY

Wrote a paper and delivered oral arguments to economics professor on potential growth of computer hardware and software industry for which he thanked me two years later as he invested and profited handsomely from my advice (1984) FL

Helped open up the telecommunications industry with as part of rates case investigation - multiplexing of communication lines using existing computers and software (1984) FL

Created software solution using a hybrid of original code and COTS for automatic update of rates schedule for large customers of energy utility company (1985) FL

Key participant of small team in Seattle food coop that developed food labeling for better consumer decision making while shopping (1985) WA

Key participant of very small team that tried to develop an affordable health insurance package for the uninsured (1985) WA

Part of marketing new community-wide recycling pick-up program (1986) WA

Key participant in committee for tribal government to assert governmental sovereignty (1987) WA

Created software solution using dBaseIII using a Macintosh for auto-calling customers behind on payments to small printing company (1987) WA

Generated and managed many grants and contracts for improving a tribe prior to casinos including expanding two small business operations with construction and operations grants (1988-1996) WA

Responsible for government IT infrastructure development including hardware and software (1988 – 1995) WA

Key participant of small group that developed the foundation plans for creating a tribal casino (abt. 1996)

Operated, instructed, managed satellite campus of small college increasing FTE at much greater than expected levels (2003 – 2007) WA

Operated videoconferencing classrooms and meeting rooms and developed distance learning curriculum and learning support (2003 – 2007) WA

Founded local film festival with filmmaking workshops (2004) WA

Predicted the Great Recession (early 2007) WA

Developed XNA game in C# for demonstrating intern cohort project (2009) WA

Advocated for technological advancement of the government including adopting responsive software development for smartphones and tablets (2009 – 2017) WA

Developed software/website QA process for software engineering (2011) WA

Developed rich featured SharePoint intranet site for government in English and Lushootseed (2012) WA

Agile/Scrum certified developer and ScrumMaster (2013 – 2019) WA

Researched and analyzed casino property, environmental and data analysis, projects with recommendations saving hundreds of thousands of dollars (est. $300–800,00) in costs with potential for increasing revenue in by millions of dollars (2019) WA

Researched analyzed digital marketing improvement opportunities for tribal property of which implementation was estimated to increase revenue by $3.5 million per year for at least a few years (2019) WA

Warned of the strong possibility of the COVID-19 pandemic including very real possibility of closing casino (early January, 2020) WA

Advocated for more extreme social distancing measures than the WH COVID-19 task force for being more successful in fighting and recovering from the disease (early January, 2020) WA

Filmmaking, animation, documentaries, instructional, etc since 2004 (current) WA

Writing short stories and other fiction since 1988 (current) WA

* Please feel free to ask questions to elicit more details about these accomplishments. I have purposefully left out details to protect the identity of others involved.